George and Ira Gershwin - this book brings to life the collaboration of the brothers and their contribution to American theatre. What makes their songs great - and how did they become so - how were they written ? From early songs such as " Fascinating Rhythm " and " Someone to Watch Over Me " through the score of Porgy and Bess and later songs " A Foggy Day " , this books traces the musical styling of the Gershwins. Deena Rosenberg is a cultural and music historian , and founding chair of the Graduate Musical Theatre Writing Program of the Tisch School of the Arts , at New...
