And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God hath led thee. More than a year ago a resolution was adopted by our Session, requesting me to prepare and present to the congregation a history of the First Presbyterian Church of Lawrence, from its organization to the present time. When, some time afterward, I was led definitely to contemplate the approaching close of my connection with the Church as its Pastor, I concluded that a historical discourse, such as the Session desired, might fittingly be preached on the last Sabbath of my pastorate. With this idea before me, I have availed myself of what little leisure I could command, in order to gather up the necessary materials for the sermon in prospect. The thought, meanwhile, more than once occurred to me that it was a pity such a discourse could not be preached in connection with the anniversary of the Church s organization. But the date of that event was not discoverable from any existing records of the Church; nor could it be ascertained from the minutes of the Presbytery. On last Tuesday, however, I was reading carefully for the first time, a letter kindly furnished me some weeks ago by the Rev. William Wilson, the minister who presided at the organization of the Church, communicating his recollections of its early history; and you may imagine my surprise at finding that that very day, on which I was thus reading Mr. Wilson s letter, Tuesday, April the 5th,...
