Over the next 5 weeks, the subcommittee will be examining a number of issues relevant to ensuring the readiness of the Armed Forces and the effective management of the Department of Defense and the four Services. In addition to today's discussion on military readiness programs, the subcommittee's agenda for this session includes: on March 23, a hearing on Defense Department financial management policies and practice; on April 1, a hearing on issues related to military installation and the Departments budget request for military construction; and on April 6, a hearing to examine Defense Department acquisition policies. We have a great deal of work ahead in this session, and I am looking forward to getting started. Our focus this afternoon will be to discuss kev...
